DEDICATION

OUR YOUTH—OUR JOYS—AND ALL WE HAVE”

Sir Walter Raleigh

Housekeeping is a pleasure for Mrs. Winstead, for not only does she have a lovely home, but an attractive husband to help her with the daily chores.

Wisdom and understanding are generally considered the products of a lifetime of experience. If one combines the freshness and vitality of youth with the quiet patience and understanding of age—one begins to form a picture of this year's honored teacher. To her students she is a "living doll" . . . to the Hi-Noc-Ar staff she is an invaluable advisor . . . to her cohorts she is a dedicated teacher bringing her youth, her zest for living, pride in work well done to a profession that thrives on devotion such as hers. This then is a person to be admired and respected. This is Mrs. Nellie Rhea Winstead, to whom we gratefully dedicate the 1961 HI-NOC-AR.

Guidance for homeroom students is a very rewarding experience for both teacher and student.

School Facilities Grow While Traditional Activities Remain

BY BILL JOHNSON

A person attending the first Rocky Mount High School in 1902 would find little change in the school today. The school has grown in size and facilities, but the traditional activities remain the same. The first graduates of the school were the class of 1902, which included 100 students. The school has since grown to a large building with many classrooms and a gymnasium. The school has also added many new activities, such as basketball, football, and baseball. The school has a long history of excellence in these sports, and it continues to be a source of pride for the community. The school has also been a center of learning and research, with many teachers and students achieving national and international recognition. The school has a strong tradition of service to the community, and it continues to be a source of inspiration and hope for the future.

Nothing in life is stationary. One moves forward and changes with his surroundings, or falls behind and retrogresses beyond all hope of regaining his former position. This year, a new annex has been added to our school, with new innovations in equipment. Why? Because education is moving forward with leaps and bounds. Our entire nation is awakening from a period of educational lassitude. The courage and determination that was innate in the early American colonists is experiencing a rebirth. To be sure, today there are new and different frontiers to conquer, but conquer we shall. This is the last year of high school education for some of us. We are soon to go on to colleges and jobs. Others of us will remain at Senior High. Yet every day each of us will move forward. The sands of time and destiny are shifting so beneath our feet, no one dares stand still. There is always the mountain to be climbed, the disease to be conquered, and the call of the horizon to be answered by the American people. So we have chosen as this year's theme, one which reflects the turmoil of the times, where old gives way to new in industry, science and politics. We feel that our annual should take note of this change; so that in years to come, one will look back and understand. He will understand the meaning of the theme of this year's annual because he will have moved and will be moving . . .

"WHAT WE ARE ORGANIZATIONS

STUDENT

The Student Organization has a dual purpose: To provide an opportunity for all students to participate democratically in shaping the policies of the school and to help build informed and mature citizens to lead and to serve in the democracy that is America.

Every student is a member of the Student Organization. The Organization consists of three units: the general organization, the class, and the home-room.

Taking as its theme "Participation Through Information," the 1960-61 Student Organization continued an emphasis on participation. Informing the student body of the opportunities for participation and stimulating interest in school activities became the main objectives of the Organization.

Not only was the Organization active locally, but it also participated in the state and district associations. It was represented at the First North Carolina Student Council Workshop, held at Boone, N. C., in August of 1960; it provided the Resolutions Committee for the State Congress in October of the same year. A member of our Student Organization, Phil Stephens, served faithfully as President of the Eastern District and our school was host to the district meeting in April of 1961. Phil was also a delegate to the Convention of the National Association of Student Councils.

Achievement in Student Organization work is rarely an individual, but more often a collective, accomplishment. The Representative Assembly, the President's Cabinet, and the students co-ordinated their efforts to produce several firsts and much success during the year.

The Social Committee offered a variety of activities, despite new and stricter regulations. Skating parties were sponsored by the Committee for the first time. Fire Drill procedures were remapped and new instruction signs were made by the Fire Drill Committee. The efficiency with which the Foreign Exchange Student Committee functioned was commendable, and our school entered candidates in several new exchange programs. The Elections Committee registered all but one sophomore student and provided new voting booths. Items which remained in Lost and Found were fewer than before. The Traffic Committee, the House and Grounds Committee, the Publications Committee, Student Store workers, and the Publicity Committee were all invaluable to the Student Organization's program.

Perhaps the least recognized contributors to the Student Organization were the faculty members. Behind every project were the ideas, suggestions, and the push of a faculty member. Our teachers were always available whenever help and advice were needed for any purpose.

Cabinet members of the Student Organizations are (seated) Betty Spence, Chairman of the Foreign Exchange Committee; Martha Speight, Manager of the Student Store; Mary Ellen Elmore, Secretary; Mayo Stancil, President; Mary Shorb, Editor of THE BLACKBIRD; Jean Renfrow, Chairman of the Publications Committee; and Miss Kitchin, Advisor; (standing) Bill Haddon, Chairman of the Fire Drill Committee, Brenda Strickland, Chairman of the Lost and Found Committee; Bud Joyner, Chairman of the House and Grounds Committee; Michael Carson, Treasurer; Phil Stephens, President of NDSC; Ronnie Jackson, Vice President; Ronnie Bunn, Chairman of the Elections Committee; Judy Weller, Chairman of the Social Committee; Rusty Lamm, Chairman of the Traffic Committee; and Alice Kovarco, Editor of the HI-NOC-AR.

Mary Shorb, editor-in-chief; Carol Joyner, business manager; Margaret Avera, advertising manager; and Patsy Respass, circulation manager, led one of the largest staffs in recent years. Composed of six seniors and twenty-six junior members, THE BLACKBIRD staff covered the school and community news for the benefit of the student body.

Following a "kick-off" assembly, the 1961 staff began its subscription drive, in which 400 subscriptions were collected. Other projects included writing essays for the local Tuberculosis Association, sponsoring the "Miss Print" contest, and electing junior and senior girls for the beauty court.

Under the able supervision of Mrs. Margaret Williams, the staff worked diligently to give accurate news. Other senior members assisting the advisor and officers were Ann Sellers and Beth Shearin.

Jackie Ashby, Ann Miller, Mrs. Williams, advisor, Kenneth Ketcham and Prudy Eatman form a "Round Table" discussion of the next issue.

Cheryl Hallaman, Patsy Green, Sandra Sultan, Margie Parrish, Betty Jo Bryant, Iris Burnette, Sandra Cheshire, Sylvia Hutto, Lee Parrish, Robert Watson, Faye Hamrick, Becky DeRatt, and Ann Boatner also help iron out a few literary wrinkles.

In the spring, the junior members of the staff pack their bags and leave for New York for the annual Columbia Scholastic Press Convention, at Columbia University. The trip also includes sight-seeing, shopping, attending Broadway shows, plus the excitement of "just being in the big city!"

Betty Jo Bryant, Miss Print for 1961, and her escort Kenneth Braswell are surrounded by Pam Daniel, runner-up, her escort Chip Broadfield, and other members of the court.

Each month the paper "goes to press," which means that each day for three consecutive days some of the staff members must trudge to Spring Hope to deliver copy to the printer.

The majorettes are Wilma Shearon, Carolyn Riley, Camilla Evans, Claudette Joyner, Bonnie Harsey, Sandra Cheshire, and Lucretia Morgan.

The members of the brass quartet are Tom Williford, Arnold Adams, Walter White, Wallace Parry, and Mr. Hammond.

At 3:30 in the afternoon, especially during the fall season, one may see a group of strutting musicians. Every day it's practice and more practice. It is not surprising then that the band is an organization in which Rocky Mount Senior High may well take pride. These hours of practice resulted in superb performances at the football games, concerts, parades, the Tarboro Centennial, the arrival of former President Truman, and graduation. School spirit is indeed lifted by these hard-working students, who under the guidance of Mr. Frank Hammond, serve as constant reminders to the student body and to the citizens of Rocky Mount that the majority of students today take pride in their school, and want to represent it well.

Mr. Harold T. Parry and the Senior High School Choir represent our school at its best. They perform for civic organizations and the student body, providing enjoyment for all. No matter how large or small an audience, the performance always receives a great deal of preparation. In addition to representing their school, choir members derive a great personal enjoyment from learning music and pleasing audiences. The choir provides an opportunity for group participation, an important part of life. As trite as it may sound, "music doth have charm."

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

To become a member of the National Honor Society is the highest honor that can come to a high school student. Scholarship alone will not admit a student into this society. To scholarship must be added leadership, character, and service.

The two candlelight tappings are the most important activities of the National Honor Society each year. Other worthwhile activities include giving a scholarship to a deserving student and awarding the Wita A. Bond Award for excellence in mathematics. Every member is proud to be a part of this nationwide organization.

Teachers are as hungry on special days as they are any other time. Carol, Mary Ellen, Tommy, and Helen add to the club treasury by manning the concession stand at the NCEA District Meeting.

First and second semester officers are Mrs. VanBuskirk, advisor; Helen Strickland, Secretary; Michael Carson, Vice President and President; Martha Speight, President; Tommy Baysden, Treasurer; Patsy Respass, Treasurer; Judy Ashby, Secretary; and Harry Harper, Vice President.

BLACK MASQUERS

Guided by Mrs. Ada Hobbs, this honorary organization fosters the spirit of drama and rewards outstanding dramatic students by election into its membership. Each member has been associated with at least two major productions and has continually and consistently maintained a high standard of work. The efforts of this group extend into the community; for the Black Masquers serve as ushers for the Community Concerts, the Symphony, and other civic enterprises. They also serve as stage crew for all groups that use the Senior High School auditorium.

Roll call for ushers: Marie, Pat, Wayne, Posey, Ray, Gladys, Bunny, Ann, and Linda line up for inspection.

The officers standing are Wayne White, President; Mrs. Hobbs, advisor; and Ray Bryant, Treasurer; seated are Gladys Capel, Secretary; and Posey Reeves, Vice President.

CHEERLEADERS

A great big, vivacious bunch of energy . . . that's the Cheerleaders of Rocky Mount Senior High School. Here and there, always promoting school spirit for the football games and the basketball games, they are our biggest boosters. Whether at a pep rally with a blazing bonfire, or entertaining other conference cheerleaders at a meal before the game, these girls are responsible for keeping enthusiasm high.

During the homecoming parade, Pam Daniel, Margaret Landen, Mary Alice Ray, Margie Parrish, and Jenny Tyner "rode down the avenue" in their special car.

Gosh! This business requires a lot of practice as Polly Reynolds, Lynda Mears, Mrs. Horn, their advisor, Janet Wynne, Judy Weller, Nannie Hussey, and Bettie Jane Munden indicate.

GOOD SPORTS CLUB

The spring and fall officers of the Good Sports Club are Sue Battle, Treasurer; Harriet Spruill, Secretary; Jo Ann Dunn, Vice President; Judy Weller, President; Mrs. Cuthrell, advisor; Claire Bolton, President; Margaret Avera, Vice President; Carol Drake, Secretary; and Sandra Sultan, Treasurer.

Mrs. Cuthrell has evidently "blown her top" trying to listen to everyone's simultaneous suggestions for decorating the lobby for Christmas.

The members of this club are a group of enthusiastic girls, dedicated to upholding the high standards of sportsmanship, leadership, character, and service among our students and promoting good sportsmanship between our school and others. Under the leadership of Mrs. Hiram J. Cuthrell, the club has many activities. It decorates the goal posts for the home football games, makes corsages, cuts confetti, and enters a car in the homecoming parade. At Christmas, the club decorates a tree for the auditorium lobby and prepares an outside decoration. The highlight of the year's activities is a picnic given in honor of the athletic organization.

BIBLE STUDY

The principles of goodness and decency one practices are the result of one's beliefs and faith. One cannot study the foundation of his faith, the Bible, too much. Under the guidance of Mrs. Jim Horn, these club members derive untold benefits from the study of the history and principles of the Holy Word.

MUSETTES

The Musettes, under the guiding hand of Mrs. Thelma Lundy, explore the many problems and rewards of the teaching profession in order to prepare themselves to meet the growing demand for qualified teachers. Discussions, films, and practical demonstrations have been of valuable assistance in giving these students an insight into the world of the modern teacher.

DEMOLAY

The DeMolay Club, sponsored by the Masonic Bodies, is open to boys from age 14 to 21 who are willing to accept the responsibilities and rewards of this club. The DeMolay is an organization native to 18 foreign countries as well as America. Its members are bound together by patriotism, loyalty, a common belief in high moral principles, and a desire to be as worthy as possible in the sight of God.

Organized in 1955, the Kudos Klub has grown rapidly in size and service. Its name is derived from the Greek word "Kydos," meaning "glory." The members of this group, though anxious to obtain glory for our school, seek to serve without thought of personal recognition. In the field of service, the Kudos Klub recognizes periodically those who have given service in the school without any recognition.

As money-making projects, the group sells plastic covers for the HI-NOC-AR, ribbons for the home basketball games, and specially made textbook covers. These activities serve not only as a means of providing funds for the club, but also as aids to the students.

SERVICE CLUB

The Service Club has long been held in high esteem by the students of Senior High. This is due to the many areas in which it functions. The members sell light bulbs and candy to underwrite their yearly program. Raising and lowering the flag each day, leading devotionals at assemblies and P.T.S.A. meetings, supervising homecoming festivities, and sponsoring the Easter Sunrise Service highlight the activities of this busy group.

Officers of the Service Club for the first semester are John Griffin, President; Frank Wilson, Vice President; Brenda Strickland, Recording Secretary; and Holly Hines, Corresponding Secretary.

Delores Nelson, Jimmy Garner, Kathryn Smith, L. P. Bell, and Wicky Thorpe seem intent on getting that flag up.

THE JUNIOR CLASSICAL LEAGUE

The mother of all of the Romance languages is Latin. What could be more fitting than that these students, under the direction of Miss Louise Parker learn not only the language, but also the customs and daily life of a once great people. These students step back into the past in Roman costume, as first year students act as slaves to the second year students, in the annual program and dinner. Music, dancing, and a true Roman feast all combine to make the Roman Banquet a real treat for all Latin students.

PUBLIC SPEAKING CLUB

This year the Public Speaking Club was established under the direction of Mr. Julius Abernathy. Those who would seek to become poised, efficient speakers, would reap great benefits from this club. Speaking is an important part of leadership, and at Senior High many of our students are actual and potential leaders. All of these would certainly derive great benefit from membership in this club.

DISTRIBUTIVE EDUCATION CLUB

The earning of a living is probably one of man's biggest problems. In order to get a job today, one needs experience in working an eight hour day, budgeting his pay check, and doing his job to the satisfaction of his employer.

Under the guidance of Mr. Knight, the D. E. Club prepares students for their future professions. In addition to the study of working procedures that is given to the members an annual contest is sponsored in sales ability in which several of our students in the past years have reached the state finals.

A DISTRIBUTOR'S CREED

I BELIEVE in the future which I am planning for myself in the field of distribution, and in the opportunities which my chosen vocation affords.

I BELIEVE that by rendering the highest measure of service to my customers, and by co-operating to the fullest extent with my fellow workers, I will be rewarded with a feeling of inward satisfaction as well as with material wealth.

I BELIEVE in the democratic philosophies of private enterprise and competition — that these philosophies allow for the fullest development of my abilities and the fullest use of individual initiative.

I BELIEVE that the ethics of conduct laid down by the Great Distributor of all good gifts should apply to my personal relationships in the field of business.

I BELIEVE that by doing my best in every way to live according to these high principles, I will be of utmost service both to myself and mankind.

DRAMATICS CLUB

The Broadway stage holds attraction for many. Mrs. Ada Hobbs enables these students who do not take dramatics to savor the flavor of grease paint and stage lights in their annual production. Make up, stage presence, and experience in acting itself are received by these club members.

HOMEMAKERS CLUB

The purpose of the Homemakers Club is to introduce girls to the homemaking skills. The members of this group enjoyed a varied program featuring discussions on dating and going-steady as well as the conventional subjects of sewing and cooking. A party culminated the study of party refreshments.

"D-e-d space, k-i-k space . . ." is a typical sound coming from the Personal Typing Club as the students learn the keyboard. Members of this club have the opportunity of learning the keyboard, composing simple letters, and developing their own ability to type. This club satisfies the student's curiosity concerning a typewriter and helps him decide whether or not he would benefit by taking typing as an academic subject.

MONOGRAM CLUB

The Monogram Club has its membership limited to boys who have earned a letter in one or more sports. Under the leadership of Mr. A. M. McGregor and Mr. C. V. Lundy, the club promotes school enthusiasm and sportsmanship in student activities. Its members characterize the self-disciplined athlete who is "in training" in all he does. The Monogram Club operates a concession stand at the ball games and sells tickets to special sports events.

RADIO BROADCASTER'S CLUB

Today communications are becoming increasingly important. It is necessary that we have trained personnel in these fields. While obtaining valuable experience in this most important profession, students also derive much enjoyment from the sense of accomplishment and responsibility that accompanies membership in this club. The weekly "News and Blues" radio program presented by this club provides entertainment for the students at Senior High. As a preparation for a future career, and as a means of serving one's fellow students, this club offers a great opportunity.

Mr. Capell, Tommy Kelly, Posey Reeves, Treasurer; Graham Herring, President; Ted Eatman, Vice President; and Lou Ellen Nelms, Secretary; seem quite interested in this weekly club program of the Radio Broadcasters Club.

Thomas Faulkner, Judy Williams, and Betty Fulghum are Saturday morning "D. J.'s"

SOS CLUB

The S.O.S. Club begins its many and varied projects on the first day of school by orienting sophomores to the Senior High School building. Through the year its members work unceasingly to promote school spirit. So that we might have a bigger and better basketball program this year, advertising space in the program was sold to students and teachers. Serving referees, watering the flowers in the lobby, and sponsoring a needy family for Christmas all show the eagerness of this club to serve. Yes, in every respect, the S.O.S. Club exemplifies service over self.

Barbara Horne, Judy Forbes, Miss Craighill, advisor; Tommy Stokes, and Peggy Thurman seem busy at Christmas.

This year's Junior Class was one of the most active of recent years. The "class spirit" ran high, and because of this they gave their best support to all their projects. Sponsoring two needy families for Christmas and working diligently on the magazine sales were two of the most successful of these. The class spirit was evidenced in the fact that by wholehearted support of all the class, two of their own girls, Betty Jo Bryant and Mary Alice Ray, were elected to represent the school as "Miss Print" and Homecoming Queen. This same spirit applied to the Junior-Senior made it one of the most successful ever.

This was the last big jump into the unfamiliar for the Sophomores. They went from grammar school to junior high, and now they have completed the first step in Senior High School. Here they were introduced to a new curriculum and different social activities. By operating the concession stands at basketball games and participating in the magazine campaign, the sophomores soon began to feel a part of their "home away from home."

CHRIS CARPENTER
Head Coach

SPOTLIGHTING THE SEASON

Rocky Mount Senior High's 1960 football team failed to retain its Eastern 4-A Conference championship in a year in which the Blackbirds soared to peaks of glory and also fell to depths of disappointment.

The year of extremes saw the Birds of Coach Chris Carpenter compile a 5-5 record and third place in the conference. Unable to put together two straight wins through the year, the Blackbirds saw their title hopes dashed when they lost two conference games during a three-week period midway the season: 19-10 to Wilmington, and 26-7 to Wilson two weeks later.

Highlights of the season were plentiful. Establishing themselves as one of the highest scoring teams in RMHS history, the Birds crushed Oxford Orphanage 64-13 in the season's opener, bombarded Norfolk Catholic 75-0, and whipped Goldsboro 34-0.

But there were low spots, chiefly the whipping by arch-rival Wilson, a shocking 32-13 loss to Class 3-A Tarboro, and the bitter defeat by Wilmington.

Three Blackbird stars gained post-season honors. Halfback speedster Ronnie Jackson, gigantic tackle Purvis Edwards, and center Jerry Horner were All-Conference selections. Jackson and Edwards drew All-State notices, were nominated for All-Southern and All-American, and were picked for the Shrine Bowl and the East-West All-Star Game.

Assistant Coaches Henry Trevathan and Jim Horn map out our offense before the big one.

"Gimme a size 34! Gimme a cleat!" Just a few of the many requests made of Varsity managers Kemp Phillips, Terry Britt, Wayne Dunn, and Bobby Ellis.

Co-captains of this year's squad—Purvis Edwards and Ronnie Jackson.

After spending the first half learning how to play against the single wing, the Birds pulled themselves together and stopped Goldsboro cold. Jackson scored three touchdowns, one on a 77 yard dash.

Fine signal calling and elusive running netted Gus Tulloss Player of the Week against Goldsboro.

Superb effort gets Bill Campbell an extra five yards.

After a 53 yard drive for a touchdown and a 36 yard field goal by Danny Talbott the Birds lead 10-0 at halftime, however the second half belonged to Wilmington and the Birds lost 19-10.

House-wrecking, one-man style, gave Purvis Edwards Player of the Week against Wilmington.

Tommy Lewis finds the end of the row after a long gain.

After stopping an early threat the Birds ruled the game until the fourth quarter with Fayetteville threatening to pull it out of the fire. A stubborn goal line defense and the passing of Danny Talbott were combined to whip Fayetteville in a 12-6 thriller.

Fine pass-receiving and good defensive play copped the title Player of the Week for Chip Broadfield against Fayetteville.

Gus Tulloss shuns pursuing tackler.

Ball! Ball! Where's the ball!

On the second play of the game Talbott passed to Jackson who scooted fifty-three yards for a touchdown. Wilson came back with two touchdowns in the second quarter and with the breaks going against R. M., the determined Cyclones were able to add two more touchdowns in the second half, defeating Rocky Mount 26-7.

Wilson found it like pulling teeth to get outside of Ernest Bridgers, Player of the Week.

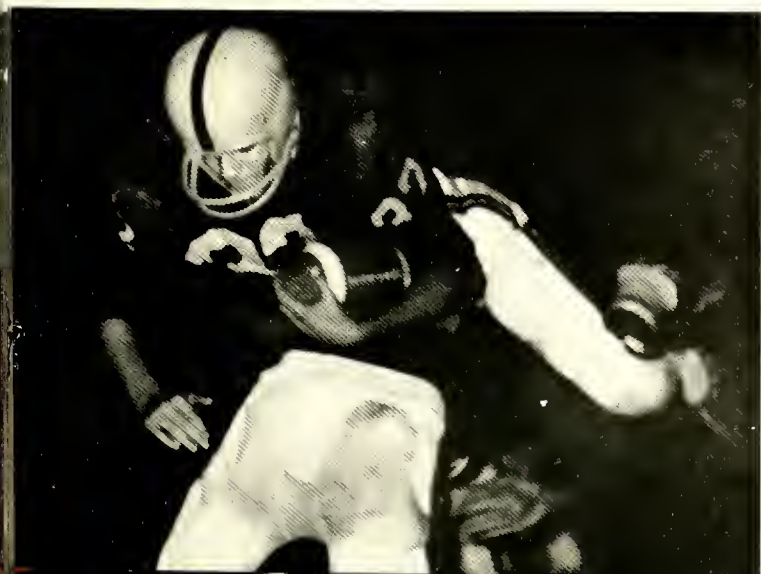

Bill Campbell stretches for the goal in a burst of extra effort.

A hundred per cent effort from everyone led the Birds to a 10-0 victory over Durham. A sparkling offense rolled up 214 yards while a superb defense held Durham to only 72 yards rushing.

Flashy broken-field running combined with good power nominated Ronnie Jackson as Player of the Week against Durham.

"If we can't run through them, we will fly over them," says Gus Tulloss.

Many mistakes and bad breaks, combined with determined playing by Raleigh caused the Blackbirds to lose their final game of the season. "Pro" Baines caught a blocked punt and ran ten yards to score our only touchdown.

Rugged defensive play in the middle of the line highlighted the performance of Jimmy Bullock, Player of the Week, against Raleigh.

BLACKBIRD STARS

In the past, Rocky Mount High School has always added its share of players to the various all-star teams. This year was no exception. The Birds co-captains, Ronnie Jackson and Purvis Edwards, made the All-Eastern Conference team, along with Jerry Horner. It was the second year for Jackson and Edwards. Ronnie and Purvis also were selected for the All-State Team and played a creditable game in Charlotte against South Carolina. Ronnie was selected by the Blackbird players as the most valuable player for the year and "Big Purve," a rolling boulder on offense and an immovable rock on defense, was the proud recipient of the Billy Smith Trophy and the Jaycee Blocking Award.

These three boys have won recognition both for themselves and for the brand of football that is played at Rocky Mount High School. Congratulations to this year's Blackbird Stars and best of luck to them with football in the future!

A GAME TO REMEMBER

Throughout the season the Birds had their ups and downs, but when they were up they were way up! Having set a school record by rolling up a 65-13 score against Oxford in the first game, the Birds felt the rest of the season would be anti-climatic. They struggled along, plagued by mediocrity and mishaps, winning and losing their share. The boys wanted to salvage the season by an impressive effort against unknown Norfolk Catholic. It was the team's final home game and last in the careers of fifteen Seniors. No optimistic view of the game could hope to match the outcome. The Birds had a score within seven plays after the kickoff, and never let up. When the final whistle was blown, and the crowds began to leave, the scoreboard registered seventy-five R. M. points and no Crusader points. The 1960 season might not be remembered for the Birds' achievements, but there were some bright spots and the Norfolk Catholic game was the brightest of them.

Coach Carpenter gets a victory ride after the Birds' last home game; a real shocker 75-0 over Norfolk High's Crusaders.

Although the Junior Varsity won only three of its eight games, Coach Henry Trevathan's talented football squad had one of its more successful seasons. The Blackbirds have a never-ending supply of well-trained, hard-playing boys who have had their individual skills developed to the fullest, before they reach the real competition that comes with being a member of the Varsity.

BASKETBALL

Danny Talbott leaps high to steal a rebound from a Wilson player.

BASKETBALL ACTION

The 1960-61 basketball season was one of rebuilding for coach Bill Lundy's Rocky Mount Senior High Blackbirds, and while the won-lost record didn't give RMHS fans a great deal to cheer about, it did include a couple of items of bliss—two victories over arch-rival Wilson.

Young and inexperienced, the Blackbirds had trouble turning the victory key against most foes, but they certainly put a padlock on Wilson, taking 51-38 and 46-36 victories. Those two games added a mark of success to the season, for nothing gives greater pleasure to an RMHS team than victory over Wilson.

The Birds opened with wins on two of their first three games, but due to inexperience and the mistakes it spawns, the season was, for the most part, a shaky one. Though mired on the lower rungs of the conference ladder most of the year, the Birds made it a habit to give the league's top teams stiff games.

Leaders during the campaign were sophomore Danny Talbott, senior Ronnie Jackson and junior Wayne Dunn. Other starters included junior Riekey Creech, senior Joe Mnrrill and sophomore Tom Parrish. Valuable as reserves were senior John Griffin and juniors Bill Campbell, Allan Lewis, and Leonard Quiney.

Basketball managers Bernie Capps, David Lamm, Pat Lane, and Jimmy Williams.

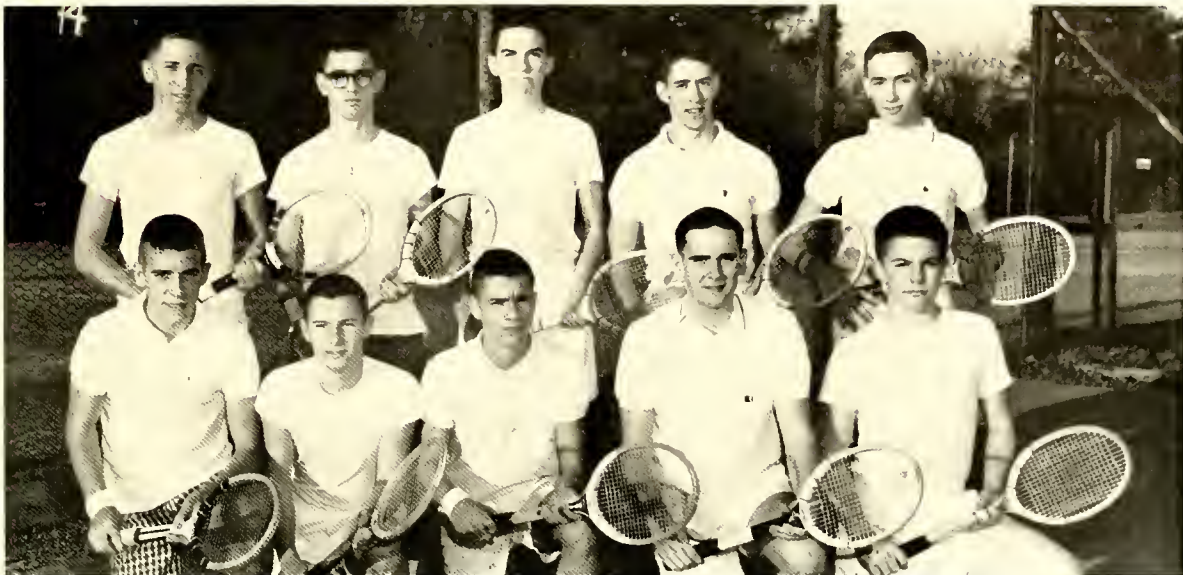

The Junior Varsity basketball team consisted entirely of Sophomores who were outstanding in Junior High basketball. With their coach, Henry Trevathan, the Babybirds showed definite signs of developing into a great Blackbird team.

As in past years, the tennis team was considered a powerful opponent for anyone. The leaders of the '61 team were returning lettermen Larry Tanner, Bill Haddon, Bill Parker, Walter Parrish, and Harry Harper. With the boys who played in the lower ranks last year to gain experience advancing, new faces were added to the starting six. A strong desire to win helped the net men of RMHS continue their fine record.

Walter Parrish and Pete Hooks (foreground) practice doubles with Garry Garris and Duane Griffin.

Bill Haddon prepares to launch his famous slice.

Bobby Ellis fires in a strike.

An enthusiastic and experienced group of diamond dusters greeted Coach Jim Horn when practices began in early March. The Blackbirds had seven returning players from last year's team: Ronnie Bachelor, first base; Wayne Dunn, second base; Ronnie Jackson, shortstop; Bill Campbell, outfield; and Terry Newell, outfield. New Sophomore talent included: Jimmy Daniels, Tom Parrish, and Danny Talbot. These players "played ball" and made this year's baseball season one to remember.

GOLF

With only one man, Roy Phipps, returning from last year's team, the 1961 golf team had a big job of rebuilding to do. However, there were many golfers interested in filling the vacant positions. With intense desire and determination, the team was assured of a good record.
